The driver of the 1968 motorcycle, Carson Lockhart, 22, and his rider, Danelda E. Mason, 21, both of Miamisburg, Ohio, were arrested by Indiana State Trooper Robert Cooley, after they were stopped on U.S. 52, three miles west of Rushville. Both of the cyclists were jailed at the Rush County Jail and held on $6000 bond. They were released at 4:30 Sunday afternoon after Lockhart's parents posted bonds totaling $1200.

Law enforcement officers impounded the pair's motorcycle while they were in jail, as well as a .38 caliber pistol, at least one knife and a quanitity of drugs.

No trial date has been set for the pair, who will appear in Circuit Court.

Memorial Day In Rushville

In the beauty of the spring sunshine, a reverent silence spread across East Hill Cemetery Monday morning as taps sounded, words were spoken and prayers lifted in memory of those who have given their lives for our country. The annual memorial service — at four points and beginning downtown on the cross filled courthouse lawn, was in charge of Jackson-Cox Post 1541 Veterans of Foreign Wars, who also furnished a firing squad. American Legion Post 150 was there with the color guard. Four speakers included Rev. Father Fisher, of St. Mary Catholic Church; Rev. Lester Shephard, retired; Lt. David Cedervall, of the Salvation Army; and Department Surgeon Bob Persons, of Jackson-Cox Post. They were introduced by Incoming Commander Chester Stacy. In the VFW firing squad were Benny Logsdon, John Cruse, Richard Johnson, Richard Sampson, Larry Edelman, Ronnie Palmer, Mike Stark, and Phil Cox. Legionaires participating were Jack Crim, Richard Neeb, Paul Smith, Jr., Louis Lee, and Ted Koelmel. Sounding taps were Jeff Miller and Doug Gosser, of RCHS.

Ulster Tension Mounts As British Troops Stand By

By DONAL O'HIGGINS

BELFAST (UPI) — The outlawed Irish Republican Army (IRA) ordered all Roman Catholic neighborhoods placed on a war footing today when a Protestant strike threatened to plunge the province into a "doomsday" total power blackout.

"We are anticipating a doomsday situation and have alerted all our men to protect the Catholic areas," spokesmen for the IRA Provisional wing said.

"We are concentrating on defensive measures against any attack by Protestant paramilitary units."

The spokesman said the IRA has already commandeered 1,000 gallons of gasoline to be issued to ambulances carrying Catholic wounded if open fighting does break out.

The IRA move came after the militant Protestant organizers of the province's 14-day-old general strike ordered their followers to close down all of Northern Ireland's essential services except the sewage and water works.

Irrevocable Stage

An electricity board spokesman said the shutdown at the two power plants still operating in the province now has reached the irrevocable stage and that all electricity would be cut off by 6 p.m. at the latest.

Water supplies fell to two hours of service daily. A drizzling rain increased the stink of rotting, uncollected garbage.

Some 700 British army and navy specialist stood by in the province to take over operation of essential services, but they did not move into the power stations during the early morning hours.

Traffic throughout Belfast slowed to a trickle today because of severe gasoline shortages and human barricades of women and children blocking roads not already sealed by abandoned hijacked vehicles and debris.

The army tried to ease the gasoline crisis Monday by occupying 21 service stations, but it turned out to be a useless gesture. There was no electricity to run the pumps.

"We are now in a total strike situation from midnight and our people are being asked to passively oppose and obstruct the government forces," said strike leader William Craig.

"We are withdrawing from the scene. The army came in to break the strike and it is now their responsibilty," Craig said.

American Firm Included In Canada Deal

OTTAWA (UPI) — The Canadian government has confirmed plans to take over two foreign aircraft firms, one of them owned by an American company.

Alastair Gillespie, minister of industry, trade and commerce, said Monday the government decided to buy the firms because it has already given the two firms more than $150 million in an effort to keep them afloat. If the "Canadianization" policy was not put into effect, he said, "there is going to be an endless application for handouts."

The firms are Canadair Ltd., controlled by General Dynamics Corporation of St. Louis, Mo., and De Havilland Aircraft of Canada Ltd., controlled by Hawker-Siddeley of London, England.

Gillespie said the government expects to pay $38 million for De Havilland and $32 million for Canadair.

He called for bids from Canadian industrialists for the two major firms and told a news conference, "I hope we will receive a number of serious proposals within the next 90 days."

He said the government has to date given De Havilland $2.9 million for capital equipment and $70.3 million for development of Short Take-off and Landing Aircraft (STOL), and Canadair has received $78.5 million.

De Havilland, located in Toronto, makes civilian planes, while Canadair, of Cartierville, Que., concentrates on military aircraft.

"Controls of the company will be transferred to the government within 30 days of the effective day of notice," Gilespie said. "A new board of directors consisting of prominent Canadian businessmen and senior company officials will be appointed to assume control on an interim and trusteeship basis."

Traffic Toll Falls Short

By United Press International

The three-day Memorial Day holiday weekend traffic toll neared the 400-mark today, falling short of a preholiday estimate by the National Safety Council.

The final count was expected later today.

The council had estimated that between 450 and 550 persons would die in traffic accidents and another 21,000 to 26,000 would suffer disabling injuries between 6 p.m. local time Friday and midnight Monday.

A United Press International count at 3 a. m. EDT showed at least 361 persons had died in traffic accidents.

A breakdown of accidental deaths:

Traffic	361
Drownings	107
Planes	15
Others	53
Total	536

California had more traffic deaths than any other state — 39. It also had the most drownings —23. New York recorded 21 traffic fatalities, Indiana, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin each had 17, Georgia 16 and Michigan and Ohio each at 15.

States reporting no traffic fatalities included New Hampshire, Alaska, Connecticut, Rhode Island, Wyoming, and North and South Dakota.

There were several accidents involving multiple fatalities. Four residents of Memphis, Tenn., were killed and five members of an Edinburg, Tex., family were injured in a collision on Interstate 55 near Hayti, Mo. early Monday, and four young people were killed Saturday in a two-car collision near Altha in northern Florida.

The council said most of those killed might have been saved if everybody in a motor vehicle wore seat belts.

Navy Plane Shot Down By Mistake

NORFOLK, Va. (UPI) — A heat-seeking missile accidentally shot down a Navy A4 jet Monday during training exercises off Jacksonville, Fla., but the pilot ejected safely, according to a Navy spokesman here.

The pilot, Lt. Robert E. Rhode, was fished out of the water by a helicopter and taken aboard the aircraft carrier Independence after the Monday evening crash.

Rhode was flying a safety plane, near another craft towing an eight-foot long target device, when the unarmed Sidewinder missile fired from an A7 Corsair attack jet went astray and hit his plane, the spokesman said.

He said the accident's cause was not known.

The target device towed by the plane near Rhode's contained flares to attract the Sidewinder, the spokesman said.

Shelby Police Draws Gun On Motorist

SHELBYVILLE, Ind. — A two-vehicle accident in Shelbyville involving a Rushville man Friday afternoon, drew wide public attention when a car driven by Gregory A. Faulconer, 23, 246 E. Washington St., struck the rear of a pickup truck driven by Clarence E. Nigh, 26, Rushville. Police said the Nigh truck was waiting for traffic to turn across E. Washington St. from the Post Office into a city parking lot. Damages were $150 to the Faulconer car, owned by Carolyn K. Eberhart, 246 E. Washington, and $100 to Nigh's truck.

Officer Larry Tharp, who witnessed the crash, said Miss Eberhart came to the scene and was thrown against her car by Faulconer. Faulconer then allegedly threatened to kill officer Tharp, and the policeman drew his pistol in anticipation Faulconer might have a weapon. He re-holstered when Faulconer backed up and make no threatening moves.

Spectators who saw Tharp draw his weapon called police headquarters, with a confused report that a man had drawn a gun on the officer, and all available policemen immediately converged on the scene. Officers said they found a sack of beer that had been in Faulconer's car, and jailed the man on charges of driving under the influence of intoxicants, resisting arrest and disorderly conduct. Faulconer was cited to city court Saturday.

Letters To The Editor

TO THE EDITOR:

I do hope the new look of the Republican is permanent. It's much more interesting to read a paper where the printing is dark and not partially blotted out or completely missing.

I only subscribe to the Republican, but do occasionally pick up other county papers, as I love to read. Now I think the Republican is as nice and more interesting than they are. Oh! almost forgot. The pictures are much nicer, too.

ON MEMORIAL DAY

We don't usually pass out bouquets to TV, but sincere congratulations to Mike Ahern for his documentary Monday night on "What has happened to Memorial Day." A lot, I'd say. Not to Memorial Day, but to the American people and present day attitudes.

For the shape Memorial Day is in these days, the services Monday at Rushville should be commended . . .both from the standpoint of the planners and participants, and those who bothered to attend the four points of commemoration. To the Jackson-Cox Post 1541 Veterans of Foreign Wars (who had charge of the annual event), to the American Legion Post 150 Color Guard; to the two high school student buglers, and the four speakers — a big salute. If you have never yeard "taps" echo across East Hill on Memorial Day, you have missed a thrill. If you have been there, and not been touched, then there is something wrong with you.

I don't like this business of changing Memorial Day around the way it has been — to accommodate the "long weekend" people. I believe this has added much to the deterioration of the real purpose of the day. Originally commemorating Civil War dead, it was begun (tradition says) by southern women during the Civil War, and flowers were placed on the graves of northern soldiers. Not all southern states now observe Memorial Day on the same date, although it is a Federal holiday since 1971. For those of us used to May 30 as the traditional time for Memorial Day across the years, it is difficult to reconcile the change. Instead of May 30, it is now the last Monday in May — not to my liking. But lots of people don't care what I like or dislike, so I don't look for a change.

I suppose it's another trend of the times, but another thing I don't like is running the 500 race on Sunday at Indy. This makes me old fashioned, and some might say, a prude. However, I am joined by others in this dislike, and it offends my sense of what I believe is right and wrong to accommodate the racing fraternity and money interests in this fashion. "This is the Day the Lord has made — let's have a blast."

Traffic through Rushville next week to the Speedway race in Indianapolis, will not be as great as in past years, as the state highway commission, in their bulletin on road conditions, advises Cincinnati and Kentucky traffic to use another route on account of the detour south of here.

Due to needed repairs, the bridge south of the city over Flatrock will be closed next Monday for three or four days. This is the announcement of J. C. King, superintendent of roads. The approaches to the bridge are in bad condition and in order to make repairs it will be necessary to close the bridge.

A. T. Mahin, superintendent of the water and light plant, says that the stock trough at the corner of First and Main streets has been supplied with water all the time, but that the one at the corner of Perkins and Second Streets has not been, because it is broken and it is the duty of the county commissioners to keep them in repair.

Plans are being perfected for the better babes contest which will be held at the Rush County Fair this year.

The HOOSIER DAY

By Donald White

A state employee is asking voters to give her a cut in pay this November, and invested $2,350 to make the request.

Jean Merritt, Associate Superintendent of Public Instruction, announced her candidacy for the Republican nomination for State Auditor. In her present position, she receives a salary of $23,894. Seeking her first elective office, the Marion County woman would receive $23,500 plus permanent assignment of a state car.

In making the announcement, she turned over a check to the state Republican party for the filing fee, based upon two and one-half percent of the salary for each year of the term of office sought. Four year state office holders pay ten percent while the Senatorial candidates contribute fifteen percent of the annual salary.

Light humor permeated the press conference. It was held at the same time as a scheduled court hearing for an injunction asking to delay start of the 500 mile race. No television camera men were present. State GOP Chairman Thomas Milligan observed: "Of all out candidates you would think that TV would show up to photograph the one that is really attractive."

Newsmen were quick to ask if he did not think Indianapolis Mayor Richard Lugar was an attractive candidate. He replied: "Not as attractive as Jean Merritt."

Reading a prepared statement, Mrs. Merritt said in part: "The 1974 election will present both parties with the challenge of strengthening public confidence and involvement in the political process. I am confident Indiana Republicans will confront this challenge by continuing its tradition of nominating and electing capable, articulate, and energetic individuals seeking positions of public trust. I hope the delegates of next month's Republican State Convention will consider my candidacy deserving their support."

One newsman asked why she used the singular verb "Its" with a plural subject "Republicans." She explained it was intended to be "Republican party." Prior to her present state job, she was a high school English teacher for eleven years.

Milligan introduced her as having a "background in education, as well as government and certainly in politics." She is the daughter of former Congressman Ralph E. Updike who represented Marion County in the early 1930's. She served as chairman of the Indiana Teachers for the Re-election of the President and an important member of Harold H. Negley's campaign committee when he won the 1972 election for the top educational job.

In her announcement, Mrs. Merritt pointed out the Auditor "is responsible for day by day financial management of the state." The Auditor and Treasurer sit the with Governor as the State Board of Finance. She said: "And, while it is the Governor who should have final authority in these matters, two of the three members of this important board are presently Democrats."

Pointing to the fact all of her background was educational with no fiscal experience, she was asked if she felt it would hinder her performance. She said: "I think a strong fiscal background would certainly be an attribute. However, I think that the position is one of administration, and I think that any good administrator is only as good as the people he surrounds himself with."

Note: Newer English rules now say a preposition is proper to end a sentence with.

With Lugar expected to win the senatorial nomination with little opposition, her nomination would mean drawing two of the top positions from Marion County, usually a political "taboo." She admitted it was a problem she had tried to deal with and had not found much resistance. She said: "I think that the Republican party is much more interested in finding qualified candidates regardless of the geography."

Salaries for the top elective jobs were increased by the 1971 General Assembly. All took effect except for the increase of pay for the Governor, prohibited from being increased during the term in office. Many appointive administrative jobs in state government pay higher than elected officials, a subject that is expected to receive legislative attention next session. Most Division heads and the five top assistants in the Governor's office receive more pay than all but the top two elective jobs, as does the Republican State Party Chairman.

As of the end of last week, Republicans did not have an announced candidate for Treasurer, but they will before election.

REGIONAL TASTES

NEW YORK (UPI) — In the North Woods they like hot toddies and down south it's mint juleps. Like drinks, candy preferences also very from region to region, depending on climate and culture.

The National Confectioners Association says easterners prefer dark and semi-sweet chocolates and minature candies. Westerners chose milk chocolates mainly in jumbo sizes. And midwesterners go for a mixture of lights and darks.

G-M To Offer Wankel In New Line Of Cars

DETROIT (UPI) — General Motors Corp. will offer four new subcompact models, a "mini-Caddy" and the Wankel rotary engine as an option next year to counter charges it has not responded to the demands for fuel-saving small cars.

GM Chairman Richard C. Gerstenberg confirmed the company's plans during its 66th annual shareholders meeting Friday, his last before retirement this fall. He also promised 1975-model GM cars would get 13 per cent better fuel economy as a result of catalytic converters that would be on all U.S. and Canadian cars.

Chevrolet, now the only GM division with a subcompact, will get a sporty four-seater named the Chaparral to go along with the Vega. It will be offered this fall with a small V-8 engine with the rotary engine as an option in 1975.

The Oldsmobile Starfire and Buck Skyhawk will be similar to the Chaparral while Pontiac gets the Astre, a Vega-type car now sold in Canada. All could get the Wankel, delayed because of fuel economy problems, when supplies become available.

For Cadillac, its new luxury compact will be about the same size as the present Chevrolet Nova, although with a sharply defined body and luxury interior. Gerstenberg would not comment on what name might be chosen.

GM has seen its sales slip harder than any other company because of a lack of capacity to turn out small cars during the depths of the energy crisis this winter. More than 80,000 GM workers remain on indefinite layoffs as a result of its large car dependence, and sales so far this year are off almost 31 per cent compared to 25 per cent for the industry.

"These new cars with smaller engines will provide the most tangible affirmation of your company's desire —and more important, its ability —to deliver in quantity what the motoring public wants," Gerstenberg said during the nearly five-hour meeting.

The catalytic converters that will control exhaust emissions will be on every car GM builds in the United States and Canada and will add between $130 and $155 to the cost of the car, Gerstenberg said.

However, Gerstenberg said fuel economy would be improved by about 13 per cent over 1974 models and the estimated savings in gasoline and maintenance could approach $100 a year for motorists.

No Fault

TORONTO (UPI) — Prime Minister Pierre Elliott Trudeau says underdeveloped countries have a right to charge more for their coffee, cocoa, and peanuts and should not be blamed for inflation.

"For a large part of this century, these countries have been selling us coffee, peanuts and cocoa at prices we like a lot —but really much lower than these countries deserve to get —prices not permitting them to come out of their poverty and misery," Trudeau said in a campaign speech Monday.

Spiritual Pathways—

By Rev. James Tharp

"Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God." (John 3:3).

In his book, "New-Time Religion," Clair Cox charges that the modern Protestant church has "joined the world." He says, "In this process of change from the old to the new-time religion, churches are becoming so alike that the clergy as well as the parishioners find it easy to jump denominational fences and go wherever the pastures are greenest. People join the church for much the same reasons they join a club."

Dr. Elton Trueblood in his book, "The Company of the Committed," says that only two percent of more than three million students in the colleges and universities of the United States are deeply concerned and dedicated Christians of any variety. And many of these colleges and schools were started and are supported by the churches. These statistics may have changed somewhat since he wrote the book a few years ago.

Jesus Christ taught that salvation was an experience. It is not a thing that we drift into, become educated into, or run into by accident. It is a spiritual crisis that an individual reaches when he, realizing he is a sinner, repents of sin and turns to God through Jesus Christ. He accepts Christ as his Saviour and Lord. His life becomes committed to Him for time and eternity. This makes salvation an experience, a decision, a crisis, a moment of turning from one master to another, a time of being transferred from one kingdom to another.

The new birth is one requirement that everyone must meet if he goes to Heaven. It might be that the minister or the church does not demand this, but remember — God does!

GENERAL INTRODUCTION

"Zoning is built on the premise that the private market for land use, in a mature urban society, cannot be permitted to make land use allocations without creating severe diseconomies in the urban development pattern."+ Zoning also derives from the belief that the individual land owner does not and cannot, in today's complex technological society, fully understand how to make safe and efficient use of his land, both in the individual and the societal context. The author of a zoning code must also be aware that often the individual does not care about such things. Every loophole must be closed, so that the unscrupulous ones have no way to evade the spirit of the ordinance. This is the tone in which many zoning ordinances are written.

However, the basic controversy which every zoning ordinance attempts to resolve is that of the conflict between the rights of the individual as opposed to the rights of the society and vice versa. Possible resolutions of this conflict range from anarchy to complete societal control of every action and thought of the individual. In the United States, we tend to take a middle course in everything, because we generally believe excesses are not desirable. Zoning is no different. The general trend in zoning has been to maintain certain rights of the individual, but to carefully control them in the hope that his development will not have adverse effects on the society around him. This is the basic aim of zoning in general, and this ordinance in particular.

WHEREAS the Board of County Commissioners, the City Council and the Town Board of Trustees pursuant to the provisions of State Statues has appointed an Area Plan Commission to recommend the boundaries of the various original districts and appropriate regulations to be enforced therein and

WHEREAS the Area Plan Commission has divided the County into districts and has prepared regulations pertaining to such districts in accordance with a comprehensive plan to the end that adequate light, air, convenience of access and safety from fire, flood, and other danger may be secured; that congestion in the public streets may be lessened or avoided; that property values may be preserved, that the public health, safety, comfort, convenience and general welfare may be promoted, and

WHEREAS The Area Plan Commission has given reasonable consideration, among other things to the character of the districts and their peculiar suitability for particular uses, with a view to conserving the value of buildings and encouraging the most appropriate use of land throughout the County and

WHEREAS The Area Plan Commission has given due public notice of hearings relating to zoning districts, regulations, and restrictions, and has held such public hearings, and

WHEREAS all requirements of Chapter 138, Acts of 1957, as amended with regard to the preparation of the ordinance have been met;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT ORDAINED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE COUNTY OF RUSH, INDIANA:

SECTION 1. ESTABLISHMENT OF DISTRICTS: PROVISION FOR OFFICIAL ZONING MAP

1.1 Official Zoning Map - The county is hereby divided into zones, or districts, as shown on the Official Zoning Map which, together with all explanatory matter thereon, is hereby adopted by reference and declared to be a part of this ordinance.

The Official Zoning Map shall be identified by certification by and bearing the seal of the county under the following words: "This is to certify that this is the Official Zoning Map referred to in Section 1 of Ordinance Number —— of the County of Rush, State of Indiana, (or City of Rushville, or Town of Carthage or Town of Glenwood) together with the date of the adoption of this ordinance."

If, in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance and Chapter 138, Acts of 1957, changes are made in district boundaries or other matter portrayed on the Official Zoning Map, such changes shall be entered on the Official Zoning Map promptly after the amendment has been approved by the Board of County Commissioners or City Council or Town Board of Trustees with an entry on the Official Zoning Map as follows: On ——— ——— by official action of the Board of County Commissioners (or City Council or Town Board of Trustees), the following changes were made in the Official Zoning Map:

which entry shall be signed by the President of the Plan Commission and attested by the County Auditor, Clerk-Treasurer or Town Clerk. No amendment to this ordinance which involves matter portrayed on the Official Zoning Map shall become effective until after such change and entry has been made on said map.

No changes of any nature shall be made in the Official Zoning Map or matter shown thereon except in conformity with the procedures set forth in this ordinance. Any unauthorized change of whatever kind by any person or persons shall be considered a violation of this ordinance and punishable as provided under Section 16.

Regardless of the existence of purported copies of the Official Zoning Map which may from time to time be made or published, the Official Zoning Map which shall be located in the office of the County Auditor shall be the final authority as to the current zoning status of land and water areas, buildings, and other structures in the county.

1.2 Replacement of Official Zoning Map - In the event that the Official Zoning Map becomes damaged, destroyed, lost, or difficult to interpret because of the nature or number of changes and additions, the Board of County Commissioners, or City Council or Town Board of Trustees may by resolutiion adopt a new Official Zoning Map which shall supersede the prior Official Zoning Map. The new Official Zoning Map may correct drafting or other errors or omissions in the prior Official Zoning Map, but no such correction shall have the effect of amending the original Official Zoning Map or any subsequent amendment thereof. The new Official Zoning Map shall be identified by the signature of the President of the Plan Commission attested by the County Auditor, Clerk-Treasurer or Town Clerk and bearing the seal of the county, city or town under the following words: "This is to certify that this Official Zoning Map supersedes and replaces the Official Zoning Map adopted ——— ——— as part of Ordinance No. ——— of the county of Rush, Indiana" (or City of Rushville, or Town of Carthage or Town of Glenwood).

Unless the prior Official Zoning Map has been lost, or has been totally destroyed, the prior map or any significant parts thereof remaining, shall be preserved, together with all available records pertaining to its adoption or amendment.

SECTION 2. RULES FOR INTERPRETATION OF DISTRICT BOUNDARIES

Where uncertainty exists as to the boundaries of districts as shown on the Official Zoning Map, the following rules shall apply:

2.1 Boundaries indicated as approximately following the center lines of streets, highways, or alleys shall be construed to follow such center lines;

2.2 Boundaries indicated as approximately following platted lot lines shall be construed as following such lot lines;

2.3 Boundaries indicated as approximately following city limits shall be construed as following such city limits;

2.4 Boundaries indicated as following railroad lines shall be construed to be midway between the main tracks.

2.5 Boundaries indicated as following shore lines shall be construed to follow such shore lines, and in the event of change in the shore line shall be construed as moving with the actual shore line; boundaries indicated as approximately following the center lines of streams, rivers, canals, lakes, or other bodies of water shall be construed to follow such center lines;

2.6 Boundaries indicated as approximately following flood plain lines shall be construed to follow such lines. In addition to the boundary shown on the zone maps, the boundary of minor ditches and streams shall be designated as being at least 5 vertical feet from any stream or shall be 100 feet horizontally from the edge of the water, whichever is the greater distance. A stream, river or creek shall be defined as one which flows at least 180 days of the year. Further, it is advised that the banks and at least 10 feet beyond the banks be left in as natural a state as possible.

2.7 Boundaries indicated as parallel to or extension of features indicated in subsections 1 through 6 above shall be so construed. Distance not specifically indicated on the Official Zoning Map shall be determined by the scale of the map;

2.8 Where physical or cultural features existing on the ground are at variance with those shown on the Official Zoning Map, or in other circumstances not covered by subsections 1 through 6 above, the Board of zoning Appeals shall interpret the district boundaries.

2.9 Where a district boundary line divides a lot which was in single ownership at the time of passage of this ordinance, the Board of Zoning Appeals may permit, as a special exception, the extension of the regulations for either portion of the lot not to exceed 50 feet beyond the district line into the remaining portion of the lot.

SECTION 3. APPLICATION OF DISTRICT REGULATIONS

The regulations set by this ordinance within each district shall be minimum regulations and shall apply uniformly to each class or kind of structure or land, and particularly, except as hereinafter provided:

3.1 No building, structure, or land use change shall hereafter be erected, constructed, reconstructed, moved, or structurally altered except in conformity with all of the regulations herein specified for the district in which it is located (See exception in Agriculture District 6.3.6.4).

3.2 No building or other structure shall hereafter be erected or altered:

A. To exceed the floor area ratio

B. To have narrower or smaller rear yards, front yards, side yards, or other open spaces than herein required; or in any other manner contrary to the provisions of this ordinance.

3.3 No part of a yard, or other open space, or off-street parking or loading space required about or in connection with any building for the purpose of complying with this ordinance, shall be included as part of a yard, open space, or off-street parking or loading space similarly required for any other building.

3.4 No yard or lot existing at the time of passage of this ordinance shall be reduced in dimension or area below the minimum requirements set forth herein. Yards or lots created after the effective date of this ordinance shall meet at least the minimum requirements established by this ordinance.

SECTION 4. NON-CONFORMING LOTS, NON-CONFORMING USES OF LAND, NON-CONFORMING STRUCTURES, NON-CONFORMING USES OF STRUCTURES, NON-CONFORMING USES OF STRUCTURES AND PREMISES, AND NON-CONFORMING CHARACTERISTICS OF USE

4.1 Intent - Within the districts established by this ordinance or amendments that may later be adopted there exist

- 4.1.1 lots
- 4.1.2 structures
- 4.1.3 uses of land and structures, and
- 4.1.4 characteristics of use which were lawful before this ordinance was passed or amended, but which would be prohibited, regulated, or restricted under the terms of this ordinance or future amendment. It is the intent of this ordinance to permit these non-conformities to continue until they are removed, but not to encourage their survival. It is further the intent of this ordinance that non-conformities shall not be enlarged upon, expanded or extended, nor be used as grounds for adding other structures or uses prohibited elsewhere in the same district.

Non-conforming uses are declared by this ordinance to be incompatible with permitted uses in the districts involved. A non-conforming use of a structure, a non-conforming use of land, or a non-conforming use of structure and land in combination shall not be extended or enlarged after passage of this ordinance by attachment on a building or premises of additional signs intended to be seen from off the premises, or by the addition of other uses, of a nature which would be prohibited generally in the district involved. It is the intent of this ordinance to exempt certain non-conformities as provided in Section 4.4.4 and Section 4.5.7.

To avoid undue hardship, nothing in this ordinance shall be deemed to require a change in the plans, construction, or designated use of any building on which actual construction was lawfully begun prior to the effective date of adoption or amendment of this ordinance and upon which actual building construction has been carried on diligently. Where excavation or demolition or removal of an existing building has been substantially begun preparatory to rebuilding, such excavation or demolition or removal shall be deemed to be actual construction, provided that work shall be carried on diligently.

4.2 Non-Conforming Lots of Record - In any district in which single-family dwellings are permitted, a single-family dwelling and customary accessory buildings may be erected on any single lot of record at the effective date of adoption or amendment of this ordinance, notwithstanding limitations imposed by other provisions of this ordinance. Such lot must be in separate ownership and not of continuous frontage with other lots in the same ownership. These provisions shall apply even though such lot fails to meet the requirements for area or width, or both, that are generally applicable in the district, provided that yard dimensions and requirements other than those applying to area or width, or both, of the lot shall conform to the regulations for the district in which such lot is located. Variance of yard requirements shall be obtained only through action of the Board of Zoning Appeals.

If two or more lots or combination of lots and portions of lots with continuous frontage in single ownership are of record at the time of passage or amendment of this ordinance and if all or part of the lots do not meet the requirements established for lot width and area, the lands involved shall be considered to be an undivided parcel for the purposes of this ordinance, and no portion of said parcel shall be used or sold in a manner which diminishes compliance with lot width and area requirements established by this ordinance, nor shall any division of any parcel be made which creates a lot with width or area below the requirements stated in this ordinance.

4.3 Non-Conforming Uses of Land (Or Land with Accessory Buildings Only) - (such as Junk yard) Where at the time of passage of this ordinance lawful use of land exists which would not be permitted by the regulations imposed by this ordinance, and where such use involves an Accessory Building, the use may be continued so long as it remains otherwise lawful, provided:

4.3.1 No such non-conforming use shall be enlarged or increased, nor extended to occupy a greater area of land than was occupied at the effective date of adoption or amendment of this ordinance;

4.3.2 No such non-conforming use shall be moved in whole or in part to any portion of the lot or parcel other than that occupied by such use at the effective date of adoption or amendment of this ordinance;

4.3.3 If any such non-conforming use of land ceases for any reason for a period of more than 60 days, any subsequent use of such land shall conform to the regulations specified by this ordinance for the district in which the land is located.

4.3.4 No additional structure not conforming to the requirements of this ordinance shall be erected in connection with such non-conforming use of land.

4.4 Non-Conforming Structures - Where a lawful structure exists at the effective date of adoption or amendment of this ordinance that could not be built under the terms of this ordinance by reason of restrictions on area, lot coverage, height, yards, its location on the lot, or other requirements concerning the structure, such structure may be continued so long as it remains otherwise lawful, subject to the following provisions:

4.4.1 No such non-conforming structure may be enlarged or altered in a way which increases its non-conformity but any structure or portion thereof may be altered to decrease its non-conformity.

4.4.2 Should such non-conforming structure or non-conforming portion of structure be destroyed by any means to an extent of more than 50 percent of its replacement cost at time of destruction, it shall not be reconstructed except in conformity with the provisions of this ordinance.

4.4.3 Should such structure be moved for any reason for any distance whatever, it shall thereafter conform to the regulations for the district in which it is located after it is moved.

4.4.4 Any structure existing prior to January 1, 1974 is exempt from the provisions of Sections 4.4.1 and 4.4.2.

4.5 Non-Conforming Uses of Structures or of Structures and Premises in Combination - If lawful use involving individual structures or of structure and premises in combination, exists at the effective date of adoption or amendment of this ordinance, that would not be allowed in the district under the terms of this ordinance, the lawful use may be continued so long as it remains otherwise lawful, subject to the following provisions:

4.5.1 No existing structure devoted to a use not permitted by this ordinance in the district in which it is located shall be enlarged, extended, constructed, reconstructed, moved or structurally altered except in changing the use of the structure to a use permitted in the district in which it is located.

4.5.2 Any non-conforming use may be extended throughout any parts of a building which were manifestly arranged or designed for such use at the time of adoption or amendment of this ordinance, but no such use shall be extended to occupy any land outside such building.

4.5.3 If no structural alterations are made, any non-conforming use of a structure, or structure and premises, may as a special exception be changed to another non-conforming use provided that the Board of Zoning Appeals, either by general rule or by making findings in the specific case, shall find that the proposed use is equally appropriate or more appropriate to the district than the existing non-conforming use. In permitting such change, the Board may require appropriate conditions and safeguards in accord with the provisions of this ordinance.

4.5.4 Any structure, or structure and land in combination, in or on which a non-conforming use is superseded by a permitted use, shall thereafter conform to the regulations for the district, and the non-conforming use may not thereafter be resumed.

4.5.5 When a non-conforming use of a structure, or structure and premises in combination, is discontinued or abandoned for twelve consecutive months or for 18 months during any three-year period (except when government action impedes access to the premises), the structure, or structure and premises in combination, shall not thereafter be used except in conformity with the regulations of the district in which it is located.

4.5.6 Where non-conforming use status applies to a structure and premises in combination, removal or destruction of the structure shall eliminate the non-conforming status of the land. Destruction for the purpose of this sub-section is defined as damage to an extent of more than 50 percent of the replacement cost at time of destruction.

4.5.7 Any structure existing prior to January 1, 1974, is exempt from the provisions of Sections 4.5.1, 4.5.2, 4.5.3, 4.5.5 and 4.5.6.

4.6 Repairs and Maintenance - On any non-conforming structure or portion of a structure containing a non-conforming use, work may be done in any period of 12 consecutive months on ordinary repairs, or on repair or replacement of non-bearing walls, fixtures, wiring, or plumbing, to an extent no exceeding 10 percent of the current replacement cost of the non-conforming structure and market value of real estate, or non-conforming portion of the structure as the case may be, provided that the cubic content existing when it became non-conforming shall not be increased.

If a non-conforming structure or portion of a structure containing a non-conforming use becomes physically unsafe or unlawful due to lack of repairs and maintenance, and is declared by any duly authorized official to be unsafe or unlawful by reason of physical condition, it shall not thereafter be restored, repaired, or rebuilt except in conformity with the regulations of the district in which it is located.

Nothing in this ordinance shall be deemed to prevent the strengthening or restoring to a safe condition of any building or part thereof declared to be unsafe by any official charged with protecting the public safety, upon order of such official.

4.7 Uses Under Special Exception Provisions Not Non-Conforming Uses - Any use which is permitted as a special exception in a district under the terms of this ordinance (other than a change through Board of Zoning Appeals action from a non-conforming use to another use not generally permitted in the district) shall not be deemed a non-conforming use in such district, but shall without further action be considered a conforming use.

SECTION 5. DEFINITIONS

5.1 For the purposes of this ordinance, certain terms or words used herein shall be interpreted as follows:

5.1.1 Accesory Building - A subordinate building that is located on the same lot as the principal building and not used or designed for human occupancy.

5.1.2 Accessory Use - A subordinate use that relates to the same lot as a primary use and is a use other than human

Rutherford Richer After Winning 500

By GARY KALE
UPI Sports Writer

INDIANAPOLIS (UPI) — Johnny Rutherford was $98,012 richer today because he remembered the late Peter Revson's favorite word—"persevere."

Rutherford left the garage 10 times at Indianapolis in previous years and always returned to the area before the 500-mile race was over. Last Sunday, the 36-year-old Texan made it all the way as 33 drivers shared a record purse of $1,015,686.

Rutherford collected 40 per cent of the $245,031 that went to winning team McLaren.

"I kept remembering what Peter said each time I failed at Indianapolis," Rutherford said. "The pressure was on me with the 25th place start. But I persevered."

Took Longer

At a victory dinner Monday night, which 21 of the drivers attended, Rutherford said "I've been dreaming of this a long time. I knew I was on my way—it just took a little longer than I expected."

The affable Rutherford, dressed in a tuxedo and a frilly shirt, praised team chiefs Teddy Mayer and Tyler Alexander for the tremendous job they did in building the car to meet the United States Auto Club deadline for qualifying.

Rutherford continued his 24-hour praise of A.J. Foyt and said he missed seeing the Houston hotshot in his rear view mirror the last 100 miles of the race.

"I really owe a lot to A.J. In 1968, I crashed in Phoenix and burned my hand badly. Foyt was forced out of the race earlier and helped me to the hospital. He phoned my wife, Betty, and assured her I'd be all right. He's No. 1 in my book."

Bobby Unser, the second place finisher, earned $99,503 for his team and said this was more money than he collected when he won the Indy 500 in 1968.

"McLaren did a fantastic job with Rutherford and I really couldn't catch Johnny."

Billy Vukovich, whose father was killed at Indy, received a third place payoff of $63,311. After that, the prize money dropped off sharply. Gordon Johncock, the 1973 winner, got $36,328 for fourth and David Hobbs of Britain $32,074 for fifth.

Earlier in the day, Foyt was gracious in his praise of Rutherford. Just prior to boarding a plane for Houston to attend his son's high school graduation, Foyt said he was glad Rutherford won "if I couldn't. Nobody here deserves it more than he does. He's a great guy and I know it had to mean a lot to his daddy, who is ill."

Dusing Leads Lions To Win Friday, 8-5

Against visiting Union County Friday, Larry Dusing, RCHS senior, led the Lions to their 13th victory of the season against eight losses, 8-5. The event was the final regular season game for the local nine.

Coach Larry Goens' crew trailed 2-0 after the first inning and then went ahead on four markers in the last of the second frame. Union County came through with a run in the top of the third and added another marker in the sixth frame to tie the game.

Union County came through with a run in the seventh that sent them ahead, 5-4, and it looked like it would be a loss for the Lions.

In the last of the seventh inning Dusing came up to bat with the bases loaded and two out on the side.

Dusing, who has been the long ball hitter all season for the locals hit a high fast ball that went out of the park for the grand slam home run that won the game for the Lions.

Dusing had half of his team's hits for the day, connecting on a triple in the second inning as well as the homer.

Dan Ralston had a double in the second frame and accounted for three RBIs. David Newman managed the other local hit, a double in the second frame.

Ballinger and Kist each recorded two-base hits in the game for Union County, in the second and seventh, respectively.

Score by Innings:

Union Co.	201 001 1	5	8	1
R-ville	040 000 4	8	4	4

Batteries: Union County — Stanton, Ripberger, Shook, Gulley and Schultz; Rushville — Owens and Overleese.

Hurler Retires 24 Consecutive Batters

By BILL RICH
UPI Sports writer

Nine years have passed without a perfect game in the National League.

So when Pittsburgh's Ken Brett had a chance to do it on Monday, what happened? His teammates gave him "a cold shoulder".

"I realized I had a perfect game from the fifth inning on," said The 26-year-old southpaw, who came from Philadelphia for infielder Dave Cash during the off season. "When I came to the bench, all the guys were kidding around with each other but they didn't pay any attention to me."

"It's an unwritten law," said Manager Danny Murtaugh, "to ignore a pitcher when he comes to the bench and he's pitching a no-hitter. He was superlative."

Brett's no-hitter lasted eight innings. He had retired 24 consecutive batters before Fred Kendall punched a leadoff single to left in the ninth. Brett, now 5-3, finished with a two hitter and the Pirates a 6-0 shutout over the Padres in the first game of a Memorial Day doubleheader. They also won the second game 8-7.

Good Hit

"I'd been throwing sliders all afternoon," Brett admitted, "but I guess this one just didn't go over. I used to pitch against Fred in high school in Southern California and he used to occasionally hit me. We were about 15 at that time. It was a good hit, no doubt about it."

After Kendall singled, Brett retired the next two batters before Derrel Thomas doubled. Enzo Hernandez bounced to Brett unassisted for the final out. The Pirates, playing with only one regular, Frank Taveras at short, banged out six hits and highlighted the eighth inning with a four run rally.

A two-run ninth inning home run by Richie Hebner won the nightcap for Pittsburgh as Brett continued his splendid day. He hit a two-run pinch-hit triple that tied the score 3-3 during a five-run seventh.

In other National League games, Atlanta ripped Philadelphia 9-1, St. Louis whipped Los Angeles 7-2, Chicago rapped San Francisco 12-4, Cincinnati nipped New York 4-2 and Houston at Montreal was rained out.

In American League games, Boston edged Minnesota 3-2, Chicago trimmed New York 3-2, Kansas City downed Baltimore 9-1, Texas blanked Cleveland 6-0, Oakland bombed Detroit 12-2 and Milwauke shutout California 2-0.

Braves 9, Phils 1

Three RBIs by Dave Johnson and Dusty Baker's homer and double sparked a 13-hit attack in the Braves' victory over the Phils. Phil Niekro, upping his record to 6-3, tossed a five-hitter and had a shutout going until the seventh when Mike Schmidt belted his eighth homer.

Cardinals 7, Dodgers 2

Home runs by Joe Torre, Reggie Smith and Ted Simmons and five double plays by St. Louis sent Dodger ace Andy Messersmith to his first loss. Southpaw John Curtis, who started for the Cards, yielded two hits over seven innings then was yanked for reliever Orlando Pena in the eighth before nailing down his third victory in eight decisions.

Cubs 12, Giants 4

Pitcher Ken Frailing's three hits and three RBIs led an 18-hit parade and Andre Thornton added a three-run homer as Chicago routed the Giants. Frailing, who went the distance to gain his third win in seven decisions, allowed the Giants 15 hits. The Cubs broke the game open in the sixth with 10 hits and five runs.

Reds 4, Mets 2

Fred Norman's four-hit pitching helped the Reds beat the Mets. The Reds shoved Tom Seaver around for their runs in the first two innings, leaving the 1973 Cy Young Winner with a sagging 2-5 record for the year.

NEW YORK (UPI) — First the girls start muscling in on some of the boys in the Little Leagues, then Tom Seaver's fastball quits whistling while it works, and now the last straw. Brooks Robinson has come up with a sudden case of the bad hands and may blow his Gold Glove!

Nobody can picture that ever happening.

Mostly because the Gold Glove, symbol of fielding proficiency, has been Brooks Robinson's private property for the past 14 years. More than his property, it has been his trademark.

Each year The Sporting News awards a gold-finished glove to the major leaguer best at his position and each year from 1960 on Brooks Robinson has won it among the third basemen.

Hall of Fame

The actual glove Robinson uses to work with is no ordinary hunk of leather either. Some day he's going to trade it in for a place in Baseball's Hall of Fame at Cooperstown. You can bet on that.

Brooks Robinson's name is synonymous with defensive perfection and has been almost from the first day he joined the Baltimore Orioles in 1955. Somebody says Brooks Robinson and the first thing that crosses your mind is one of those dozens upon dozens of unbelievable plays you've seen him make at third base.

One of his performances alone, against the Cincinnati Reds in the 1970 World Series, already has achieved the proportions of a classic. In the considered judgement of those who have watched him since he came up to the Orioles 20 years ago, Robinson has, for most of that time, been the finest fielding third baseman in all baseball, perhaps even the best of all time.

Now there seems to be some trouble, though.

He committed his 10th error of the season in Monday night's 9-1 loss to Kansas City and showed his disgust plainly for everyone to see over national television after throwing wildly to first base.

Ordinarily if this were some other third baseman nobody would ,pay a whole lot of attention. But this isn't some other third baseman. This is Brooks Robinson, the greatest glove in America, who has gone a couple of entire seasons making only 11 errors and has averaged only 14 errors per season in his career.

Slowing Down

His 10 errors up to now constitute the most he has ever had at this point in the season, and the rather obvious conclusion is that at 37 even Brooks Robinson is slowing down. But then you take a look at that .325 batting average of his and you have to stop a moment and ask yourself what's so slow about that?

Robinson's batting average pleases him. His fielding so far does not, but it isn't something keeping him up nights. He's been around too long for that.

"I look at fielding a lot like hitting," he was saying, sitting there in the dugout, watching some of the other Orioles hit and making sure he didn't miss his turn. "You run into little slumps in the field, too, know what I mean?

"That's correct. Five of my errors have been on thrown balls. I threw away a couple of balls which were ridiculous. I don't mind missing balls, but I hate to throw 'em away. I had plenty of time. I don't really know what happened.

SECTION 6. SCHEDULE OF DISTRICT REGULATIONS ADOPTED

6.1 Table: Schedule of Uses

6.1.1 The Schedule of Uses Table (See Appendix A) was prepared using a modified form of the Standard System for Identifying and Coding Land Use Activities. A 3-digit level of detail is indicated. All 3-digit numbers and descriptions of activities contain all 4-digit numbers and descriptions of activities as well. For example, if "711, Cultural Activities" is indicated as permitted in the R district, then "7111: Libraries," "7112: Museums," "7113: Art Galleries," and "7119: Other Cultural Activities," are permitted as well. (See Appendix A for the classification system.)

6.1.2 The table describes Permitted Uses, Special Exceptions and Prohibited Uses for each district established by this ordinance.

6.2 General Restrictions, Applicable to All Uses in All Districts

6.2.1 Any structure erected or moved for use as a D.U. or with a replacement cost valued at greater than $2,000 shall be easily accessible to fire and other emergency equipment, and shall be on a lot adjacent to a public street, or with access to an approved private street.

6.3.1.8 Fences Walls and Hedges - Notwithstanding other provisions of this ordinance, fences, walls, and hedges may be permitted in any required yard, or along the edge of any yard, provided that no fence, wall or hedge along the sides or front edge of any front yard shall be over 2½ feet in height.

This can be done by covenant dedication or easement. This land may be used for future public facilities, such as schools, or for recreational or open space areas, etc., as approved by the Board of Zoning Appeals and Plan Commission. Means for permanent control and maintenance shall be outlined in a form acceptable to the Board and Plan Commission.

6. Developer is permitted to include limited business facilities to serve the residents of the development, if such facilities are fully integrated into design and development and are approved by the Board and Plan Commission.

7. Developer is urged to:

i. Cluster D.U.'s to minimize utility line expenses, leaving large areas of public and semi-public open space and recreation areas for use by the residents.

ii. Offer a mix of dwelling types to provide variety.

iii. Preserve as much natural vegetation on the site as possible.

iv. Place all utilities below ground.

a. Performance Standards-Noise: Sound levels shall be measured with a sound level meter and associated octave band filter manufactured according to standards prescribed by the American Standards Association. Measurements shall be made using the flat network of the sound level meter. Impulsive type noises shall be subject to the performance standards hereinafter prescribed, provided that such noises shall be capable of being accurately measured with such equipment. Noises capable of being so measured, for the purpose of this ordinance shall be those noises which cause rapid fluctuations of the needle of the sound level meter, with a variation of no more than plus or minus two decibels. Noises incapble of being so measured such as those of an irregular and intermittent nature, shall be controlled so as not to become a nuisance to adjacent uses.

At no point on the boundary of the "M" District shall the sound intensity level of any individual operation or plant (other than the operation of motor vehicles or other transportation facilities) exceed the decibel levels in the designated octave bands shown on the following table.

OCTAVE BAND FREQUENCY (cycles per second)	MAXIMUM PERMITTED SOUND LEVEL IN DECIBELS
	Along Residence District Boundaries	Along Business or Commercial District Boundaries

For the purpose of grading the density of smoke, the Ringelmann Chart, published and used by the United States Bureau of Mines, shall be employed. The emission of smoke or particulate matter of a density greater than No. 2 on the Ringelmann Chart is prohibited at all times, except as otherwise provided hereinafter.

The emission, from all sources within any lot area, of particulate matter containing more than ten percent by weight of particles having a particle diameter larger than 44 microns is prohibited.

Dust and other types of air pollution, borne by the wind from such sources as storage areas, yards, roads, and the like, within lot boundaries, shall be kept to a minimum by appropriate private landscaping, paving, oiling, fencing, or other acceptable means. Emission of particulate matter from such sources in excess of the weight limitation herein specified is prohibited.

Smoke:

The emission of more than eight smoke units per hour per stack is prohibited, including smoke of a density in excess of Ringelmann No. 2. However, during one one-hour period in each 24 hour day, each stack may emit up to 16 smoke units when blowing soot or cleaning fires. Only during fire-cleaning periods, however, shall smoke of Ringlemann No. 3 be permitted, and then for not more than three minutes.

c. Performance Standards - Toxic or Noxious Matter:

No use shall, for any period of time, discharge across the boundaries of the lot wherein it is located toxic or noxious matter, such as sewage, in such concentrations as to be detrimental to, or endanger the public health, safety, comfort, or welfare, or cause injury or damage to property or business.

2. The storage, utilization, or manufacture of materials or products ranging from free or active burning to intense burning - as determined for liquids by a closed cup flash point of less than 187 degrees but not less than 105 degrees F. - is permitted, subject to compliance with all other performance standards for the "M" District, and provided the following conditions are met:

Vibration (the periodic displacement measured in inches, of earth) shall be measured at any point along the "M" District boundary line with a three-component measuring instrument approved by the Area Plan Commission, and shall be expressed as displacement in inches.

Frequency (cycles per second)	Maximum Permitted Displacement along "M" District Boundaries (in inches)
0 to 10	.0008
10 to 20	.0005
20 to 30	.0002
30 to 40	.0002
40 and over	.0001

g. Performance Standards - Glare or Heat:

Any operation producing intense glare or heat shall be performed within a completely enclosed building in such manner as not to create a public nuisance or hazard along lot lines.

h. When rough tests by the Executive Director upon complaint by 60 per cent of adjacent property owners, indicate to the Plan Commission a possible violation of the Performance Standards, the Plan Commission shall require the manufacture to obtain and bear the cost of the appropriate technical assistance to ascertain the exact amount of emissions of noxious effects at the lot lines of the manufacturing property in question. This technical assistance shall be approved in writing by the Plan Commission before tests are conducted. Results of said tests shall be presented to the Plan Commission in writing. a. A written application for a special exception is submitted indicating the section of this ordinance under which the special exception is sought and stating the grounds on which it is requested;

b. Notice shall be given at least 15 days in advance of public hearing. The owner of the property for which special exception is sought or his agent shall be notified by mail. Notice of such hearings shall be posted on the property for which special exception is sought, in one other public place, and in a newspaper of general circulation at least 15 days prior to the public hearing;

c. The public hearing shall be held. Any party may appear in person, or by agent or attorney;

d. The Board of Zoning Appeals shall make a finding that it is empowered under the section of this ordinance described in the application to grant the Special Exception, and that the granting of the Special Exception will not adversely affect the public interest.

e. Before any Special Exception shall be issued, the Board shall make written findings certifying that all applicable restrictions of the district in which the Special Exception is to be located have been followed, as well as such additional restrictions which the Board may see fit to impose. The Board shall ascertain that satisfactory provision and arrangement has been made concerning the following, where applicable.

1. ingress and egress to property and proposed structures thereon with particular reference to automotive and pedestrian safety and convenience, traffic flow and control, and access in case of fire or catastrophe;
2. off-street parking and loading areas where required, with particular attention to the items in (1) above and the economic, noise, glare, or odor effects of the special exception on adjoining properties generally in the district;
3. refuse and service areas, with particular reference to the items in (1) and (2) above;
4. utilities, with reference to locations, availability, and compatibility;
5. screening and buffering of objectionable or unsafe views, odors, noises, or vibrations, with reference to type, dimensions, and character;
6. signs, if any, and proposed exterior lighting with reference to glare, traffic safety, economic effect, and compatibility and harmony with properties in the district;
7. required yards and other open space;
8. general compatibility with adjacent properties and other property in the district.

9.3 Variances; Conditions Governing Applications; Procedures. - To authorize upon appeal in specific cases such variance from the terms of this ordinance as will not be contrary to the public interest where, owing to special conditions, a literal enforcement of the provisions of this ordinance would result in unnecessary hardship. A variance from the terms of this ordinance shall not be granted by the Board of Zoning Appeals unless and until

a. A written application for a variance is submitted demonstrating:

1. The grant will not be injurious to the public health, safety, morals, and general welfare of the community;
2. The use or value of the area adjacent to the property included in the variance will not be adversely affected;
3. The need for the variance arises from some condition peculiar to the property involved and does not exist in similar property in the same zone; and
4. The strict application of the terms of the ordinance will constitute an unusual and unnecessary hardship as applied to the property for which a variance is sought.

No non-conforming use of neighboring lands, structures, or buildings in the same district, and no permitted or non-conforming use of lands, structures, or buildings in other districts shall be considered grounds for the issuance of a variance.

b. Notice of public hearing shall be given as in Section 9.2 b above;

c. The public hearing shall be held. Any party may appear in person, or by agent or by attorney;

d. The Board of Zoning Appeals shall make findings that the requirements of Section 9.3 a have been met by the applicant for a variance;

e. The Board of Zoning Appeals shall further make a finding that the reasons set forth in the application justify the granting of the variance, and that the variance is the minimum variance that will make possible the reasonable use of the land, building, or structure;

f. The Board of Zoning Appeals shall further make a finding that the granting of the variance will be in harmony with the general purpose and intent of this ordinance, and will not be injurious to the neighborhood, or otherwise detrimental to the public welfare.

In granting any variance, the Board of Zoning Appeals may prescribe appropriate conditions and safeguards in conformity with this ordinance. Violation of such conditions and safeguards, when made a part of the terms under which the variance is granted, shall be deemed a violation of this ordinance and punishable under Section 16 of this ordinance.

Under no circumstances shall the Board of Zoning Appeals grant a variance to allow a use not permissible under the term of this ordinance in the district involved, or any use expressly or by implication prohibited by the terms of this ordinance in said district.

9.4 Board Has Powers of Executive Director on Appeals: Reversing Decision of Executive Director - In exercising the above mentioned powers, the Board of Zoning Appeals may, so long as such action is in conformity with the terms of this ordinance, reverse or affirm, wholly or partly, or may modify the order, requirement, decision, or determination appealed from and may make such order, requirement, decision, or determination as ought to be made, and to that end shall have the powers of the Executive Director from whom the appeal is taken.

A majority vote of the members of the Board shall be necessary to reverse any order, requirement, decision, or determination of the Executive Director, or to decide in favor of the applicant on any matter upon which it is required to pass under this ordinance, or to effect any variation in the application of this ordinance.

SECTION 10.
APPEALS FROM THE BOARD OF ZONING APPEALS

Any person or persons, or any taxpayer, department, board, or bureau of the city aggrieved by any decision of the Board of zoning Appeals may seek review by a court of record of such decision, in the manner provided by the laws of the State of Indiana and particularly by State Statutes.

SECTION 11.
DUTIES OF EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, BOARD OF ZONING APPEALS, LEGISLATIVE BODIES AND COURTS ON MATTERS OF APPEAL.

It is the intent of this ordinance that all questions of interpretation and enforcement shall be first presented to the Executive Director and that such questions shall be presented to the Board of Zoning Appeals only on appeal from the decision of the Executive Director and that recourse from the decision of the Board of Zoning Appeals shall be to the courts as provided by law and particularly by State Statutes.

It is further the intent of this ordinance that the duties of the Board of County Commissioners, the City Council and the Town Board of Trustees in connection with this ordinance shall not include hearing and deciding questions of interpretation and enforcement that may arise. The procedure for deciding such questions shall be as stated in this section and this ordinance. Under this ordinance, the Board of County Commissioners, the City Council and the Town Board of Trustees shall have only the duties (1) of considering and adopting or rejecting proposed amendments or the repeal of this ordinance, as provided by law, and (2) of establishing a schedule of fees and charges as stated in Section 12, below.

SECTION 12.
SCHEDULE OF FEES, CHARGES, AND EXPENSES

This ordinance hereby establishes the following schedule of fees, charges and expenses:

12.1 Special Exception Permit — $5.00
12.2 Variance Permit — $3.00
12.3 Improvement Location Permit — $3.00
12.4 Certificate of Zoning Compliance — $3.00
12.5 Violations of the Ordinance — per Section 16.
12.6 Petition for Amendment to the Ordinance — $20.00
12.7 Petition for Board of Zoning Appeals Action — $10.00

In addition, the petitioner shall assume the cost of the required legal notice of public hearings and the cost of due notice to interested parties with respect to Special Exceptions, Variances, Amendments to the Zoning Ordinance and Appeals.

SECTION 13. AMENDMENTS

The regulations, restrictions, and boundaries set forth in this ordinance may from time to time be amended, supplemented, changed, or repealed, provided however that no such action may be taken until after a public hearing in relation thereto, at which parties in interest and citizens shall have an opportunity to be heard. At least 10 days' notice of the time and place of such hearing shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the county.

When a proposed amendment affects the zoning classification of property, and in case a protest against such change is signed by the owners of 20 per cent or more either of the area of the lots included in such proposed change, or of those immediately adjacent in the rear thereof extending 200 feet therefrom, or of those directly opposite thereto extending 100 feet from the street frontage of such opposite lots, then such amendments shall not become effective except by the favorable vote of the Area Plan Commission and subsequently by the favorable vote of a constitutional majority of the respective legislative bodies.

SECTION 14.
PROVISIONS OF ORDINANCE DECLARED TO BE MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS

In their interpretation and application, the provisions of this ordinance shall be held to be minimum requirements, adopted for the promotion of the public health, safety, or general welfare. Wherever the requirements of this ordinance are at variance with the requirements of any other lawfully adopted rules, regulations, ordinances, deed restrictions, or covenants, the most restrictive or that imposing the higher standards, shall govern.

SECTION 15.
COMPLAINTS REGARDING VIOLATIONS

Whenever a violation of this ordinance occurs, or is alleged to have occurred, any person may file a written complaint. Such complaint stating fully the causes and basis thereof shall be filed with the Executive Director. He shall record properly such complaint, immediately investigate, and take action thereon as provided by this ordinance.

SECTION 16.
PENALTIES FOR VIOLATION

Violation of the provisions of this ordinance or failure to comply with any of its requirements (including violations of conditions and safeguards established in connection with grants of variances or special exceptions) shall constitute a common nuisance. Any person who violates this ordinance or fails to comply with any of its requirements shall upon conviction thereof be fined not less than $10 nor more than $300 and shall pay costs. Each day such violation continues shall be considered a separate offense.

The owner of tenant of any building, structure, premises, or part thereof, and any architect, builder, contractor, agent, or other person who commits, participates in, assists in, or maintains such violation may each be found guilty of a separate offense and suffer the penalties herein provided.

Nothing herein contained shall prevent the county, city or towns from taking such other lawful action as is necessary to prevent or remedy any violation.

SECTION 17.
SEPARABILITY CLAUSE

Should any section or provision of this ordinance be declared by the courts to be unconstitutional or invalid, such decision shall not affect the validity of the ordinance as a whole or any part thereof other than the part so declared to be unconstitutional or invalid.

APPENDIX A

SCHEDULE OF USES AS A PART OF A

ZONING ORDINANCE

FOR

RUSH COUNTY, INDIANA

The SCHEDULE OF USES is intended to be used in conjunction with a set of zoning districts. The districts have been chosen as follows:

R - RESIDENTIAL: includes all types of permanent dwelling facilities.

MH - MOBILE HOME: a district for the purpose of strictly controlling the spread of mobile home type residences throughout the county.

C - COMMERCIAL: includes highway service facilities such as gas stations and restaurants, as well as facilities to serve local residential needs, such as grocery stores.

B - BUSINESS: encompasses the Central Business District of Rushville. It is intended to preserve and promote a different type of land use pattern (that of a "downtown"), than that intended to be preserved and enhanced by the "C" district.

M - MANUFACTURING: intended to reserve tracts of land which would be appropriate for industrial uses.

A - AGRICULTURAL: to preserve the agricultural lands of the county from inefficient and undesirable expansion of non-farm uses.

O - OPEN LAND: to preserve certain areas from inefficient and undesirable development. Areas mainly include flood plains.

A WEEKLY HOOSIER HISTORICAL COLUMN

By Laura Brett and Rev. Joseph Delgatto

During Wendell Willkie's years as president of Commonwealth and Southern two things occurred. First he began to acquire farm acreage in Rush County. At first his father-in-law, Phillip Wilke, managed the sixteen hundred acres. After his death they would be managed by Miss Mary Sleeth. Willkie considered the farms his real home rather than his New York apartment.

The second happening was the depression. One month after Willkie became president of Commonwealth and Southern, Franklin Roosevelt became President of the United States. One of the "New Deal" remedies for the economic disaster was the Tennessee Valley Authority. The energy from the raging Tennessee River was to be harnessed and sold to the five million people in the Tennessee River Valley. The plan brought the government into conflict with the private utilities. Four of Willkie's companies were in the area served by the government agency and Willkie jumped into the fight.

The Hoosier testified against the plan for the Tennessee Valley Authority before congress but the bill passed. Willkie then proposed that the authority sell power to the utilities who in turn would market it to the consumer. The Authority turned down this plan. They would sell their own power, charging the utilities with overcharging the public.

Willkie took his case to anyone who would listen. He held press conferences, wired the White House, phoned the President and spoke before groups willing to give a hearing. He kept his cause alive year after year and had become a national celebrity. By 1938 he was being mentioned frequently as a candidate for the Republican nomination for the presidency. The only problem was that he was a registered Democrat. He did, however, vote for Alf Landon in 1936 because he was disgusted with the New Deal. Finally by 1939 he could no longer support his lifelong political party. When he went to register, Edith urged him to register as a Republican. As he did so he said, "Well, I've done it . . . I did not leave the Democratic Party. The Party left me."

This made Willkie available as a possible candidate for the 1940 election but many Republicans were not happy about it. Although he had fought for the rights of big business he was known as a liberal and one who stood for American involvement in world affairs. So the conservative isolationists of the party fought him. He announced his candidacy and it took six ballots to nominate him at Philadelphia. He was the first truly 'grass roots" candidate. He had no political machine behind him. But the average Republican citizen in the street was for Willkie.

He opposed Franklin Roosevelt who at first would not campaign but used stand-ins. Roosevelt's strategy was to be "too busy as president" to woo the voters. This didn't work, however, for Willkie proved to be a superb campaigner. F.D.R. finally campaigned, saying, "I'm an old campaigner and love a good fight." He got one because Willkie managed to poll more votes than any other Republican in history. But he lost and returned to private life.

When he was nominated for the presidency, Willkie had resigned as head of Commonwealth and Southern. He now became a partner in the New York law firm of Willkie, Owen, Farr, Gallegher and Walton. He was still in the limelight and wrote magazine articles, made speeches and gave interviews. On August 26, 1942, he began a worldwide trip of good will which would cover 31,000 miles and fifty nations. He also penned "One World."

By 1943, Willkie had decided to run again for the Republican nomination. But the leaders of the party, more conservative and isolationist than he, fought him. He launched his campaign in February of 1944, but the odds were against him. He seemed to realize the Republican Party of the day did not share his ideals and withdrew from the race. When asked by reporters what he would do, he replied, "I'm going to put about four hundred of my acres into corn."

More than corn was on his mind though. Because he and Roosevelt were privately planning for a new "Liberal Party." They had been discussing this possibility since the 1940 elections. Both felt their respective political parties were too "reactionary." The new political party was not to be, however.

In late 1944, Willkie left for Rushville by train for a short rest. On the trip he suffered a heart attack. The attack intensified while he was at Rushville. He was advised to enter an Indianapolis hospital. He stalled hoping to keep the attack secret. On October fourth his condition was complicated with a strepococcic throat infection. This further weakened his heart. At 2:20 on Sunday morning, October 8, he died of a coronary.

Funeral services were held in New York's Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church where 60,000 persons an hour passed by his casket. At Rushville Mayor Manley Abercrombie proclaimed a ten day mourning period. Willkie's body arrived by train at his adopted home town on October 11 at 8:35 a.m. The Rushville funeral rites were held on Tuesday, October 17 at 3:00 p.m. at the Wyatt-Moore Mortuary. The delay in the Rushville rites was due to locating his son Phillip who was serving as a Lieutenant in the pacific theater of war. The Reverend George Arthur Frantz, pastor of the Frist Presbyterian Church, Indianapolis, conducted the rites assisted by the Reverend Charles V. Reeder, Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Rushville. Willkie was laid to rest in the new family plot in East Hill Cemetery.

The great and famous came to do him honor. The pall bearers, however, were not politicians or business tycoons or even attorneys. They were the eight men who farmed the Willkie acres.

She wore a heart shaped necklace, a gift of the groom, and carried a colonial bouquet of pink sweetheart roses, white miniature carnations, white daisies, baby's breath and stephanotis.

Miss Cindy Wagner, Arlington, was her sister's maid of honor. She chose a pink double knit polyester with a bib front embroidered in a multicolor floral pattern. The front and back of the dress gathered into a set-in midriff, with a back tie sash. Ruffles trimmed the neckline and cuffs. Miss Jenny Vale, and Mrs. Mike Roberts, Rushville, sisters of the bride, were bridesmaids. Their dresses of aqua double knit polyester were styled the same as the maid of honor. They too had tear-drop pendants and carried floral arrangements of miniature white carnations, daisies, baby's breath with pink and aqua streamers.

Garth Lee, Arlington was best man. Tom Wagner, Arlington, brother of the bride, and Mike Roberts, Rushville, brother-in-law of the bride, were groomsmen. The usher was Mike Wagner, Arlington, cousin of the bride. Mike Wagner and Tom Wagner lighted the candles.

Marilyn Wagner, Arlington, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a pink and white dotted swiss long dress, with lace bib front, and short puffed carried a white basket with pink scattered in the path of the bride.

Teddy Wagner, Arlington, cousin of the bride, carried the rings on a heart-shaped satin pillow, trimmed in lace and ribbon.

The bride's mother chose a three-piece aqua and white checked suit, with white accessories. The groom's mother wore a white polyester knit dress, with white accessories. Both mothers had pink sweetheart rose corsages. Mrs. Tommie Wagner, Arlington, Mrs. Vernie Dice, Rushville, and Mrs. Alta Ruble, Milroy, grandmothers of the couple, had white daisy corsages, with pink and aqua ribbon.

The reception followed the ceremony in the church basement. The serving table was laid with a white cloth and full white skirt, accented with white bows. The four-tier cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom, and was encircled with spring greenery. A six-branch candelabra, with white flowers, doves and bells, added to the decorations. Crystal and silver were used for serving. Assisting in serving the guests were Miss Carolyn Shook and Mrs. Mark Ruble. They wore pink aprons with lace trim and white carnation corsages, with pink and aqua ribbon, gifts of the bride. Miss Mescal Simpson and Miss Cindy Spurlin registered the guests and gifts. They wore white carnation corsages with pink and aqua ribbon.

For a wedding trip to Hueston Woods, the bride wore a pink and white polyester knit pant suit, with white accessories, and the corsage from her bridal bouquet. The couple will reside at 724 North Willow Street.

The bride graduated from Rushville Consolidated High School in 1973 and is employed at Central Electric Supply in Indianapolis. The groom graduated from RCHS in 1972 and is employed as a salesman at Taff Furniture Store.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Vale were hosts on Thursday evening for the rehearsal dinner.

Cuts Drownings

By United Press International

Just one drowning was reported in Indiana over the long Memorial Day weekend.

Swimmers were not out in vast numbers because of chilly water and the fact that a number of beaches are still closed because of high water.

Dennis Smith, 4 Cedar Lake, drowned Friday night when he fell into the lake from a pier.

An autopsy Monday showed Russell Mann, 24, Indianapolis, was a drowning victim but not over the weekend. Officials said Mann apparently drowned last Wednesday night in White River at Indianapolis.

Foreign Trade Sets Mark

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States registered a $92.8 million surplus in record volumes of world trade in April, the Commerce Department said today.

For the first four months of the year the merchandise trade surplus was $778.4 million compared to a deficit of $666.7 million in the same period last year, the report said.

In April, the department said, the United States exported some $8.2 billion worth of goods on a seasonally adjusted basis while the value of imports totaled about $8.1 billion.

The balance of trade is part of the more important balance of payments, which includes services and money invested in international trade.

Army Worms

WEST LAFAYETTE, Ind. (UPI) — Army worms have been reported in the southern third of Indiana in corn and small-grain fields, Purdue University entomologists warn.

An advisory to farmers from Rich Edwards and Dave Matthew of the Purdue University Extension Service said "numbers reported so far have been small, but there is a good chance of some major problems with this insect."

"Farmers should be watching grasslands, field margins, fence rows, wheat fields etcetera for signs for feeding or armyworm movement," the report said.

If high numbers are seen moving into a field of field corn or if a field already infested has three per cent of the plants damaged and larvae are still present, treatment is advisable, it added.

"Treatment may not be necessary for the entire field, only that part that is infested," the warning noted. It said treatment is recommended in small-grain fields when a large number of larvae are found and advised farmers to check with their county extension office for more information.
